

Justina Koh

Justina Koh has over 20 years' experience with several international banks, where she was responsible for financial and operational control, and project management. Justina provides consulting and advisory services for banks, and has been engaged in financial training for the past 10 years. She is the principal developer for FTI's IBF-accredited programmes for Financial Markets Operations and Product Control.

Justina holds a Bachelor's degree in Accountancy from the National University of Singapore and a Master's degree in Applied Finance from Macquarie University. She is also a member of the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Singapore