

SPEAKER'S PROFILE

Suman is a senior executive with over 25 years of leadership experience in Payments, Technology, and Healthcare services. Experienced in company start-ups, growth and failure; business transformation, downsizing, digitalization and restructuring, Suman brings together a unique blend of coaching/facilitation skills with a strong business-building background to help leaders build awareness and capacity to live and lead consciously and show up in the way the world needs them.

She delights in empowering leaders to go beyond their own limits and embrace life with confidence. With teams, she builds connections and trust in teams through a safe space for authentic conversations that lead to innovative and collaborative outcomes. She loves the magic of coaching and coaches and aspires to see both thrive to transform the world.

Suman served as the President of the International Coach Federation (ICF) Singapore Chapter in 2019, driving initiatives to introduce coaching to the community and shape the coaching landscape in Singapore.
